

I think that XM should be able to offer the traffic and weather to all its listeners, I utilize that service all the time, i travel for a living. It is a violation of the first amendment to limit this service